

The following list of accommodation and transportation options is provided only as a suggestion to inquiring individuals. The College does not endorse, receive remuneration for nor take responsibility in any way for any arrangements made with any of the listed suggestions:

Accommodation

- 1) Hostelling International (www.hihostels.ca) is one block from the popular Whyte Avenue area with cafes, restaurants and a nearby supermarket. The accommodation is in twin rooms, though there are larger rooms available for groups of friends who wish to share. There is a fully equipped kitchen, a dining area and free wireless Internet connection. All bedding is included. The rate is $25.00 per person per night with a membership (yearly Canadian membership cost is $30.45 plus tax and International membership cost is $24.00 plus tax) or $29.00 per person per night without membership. The hostel is one of the drop-off points for the Sky Shuttle airport bus. Tel.: 780-988-6836, e-mail: edmonton@hihostels.ca
- 2) Lister Centre (www.ualberta.ca) is the summertime only accommodation in the traditional residence rooms at the University of Alberta. The residence is not far from the Whyte Avenue area, and there is easy access to all facilities and amenities. Single and twin rooms are available. Washrooms are centrally located on each floor, and linen and towel services are provided. Single rooms cost $49.00 (plus tax) and double rooms cost $59.00 (plus tax). Please be aware that there are NO cooking facilities at Lister Centre, but full meal services are available. The University is also one of the drop-off points for the Sky Shuttle airport bus. Please note that if you are not intending to cook, please choose the Lister Centre.*
Schaffer Hall is a year round hotel accommodation situated in the same complex as Lister Centre. Private single room is $65.00 and includes continental breakfast.
